Sir,

I have the honour to solicit sanction for Rs 840 being the remuneration payable to examiners employed in the Vidvat and Vidyarthi examinations held in September last and also Rs 118/- being remuneration payable to clerks, peons and copyists for services in connection with the above examinations. The statements A and B herewith submitted give the details of the examiners etc. employed for the purpose. The budget allotment for remuneration to examiners being Rs [illegible] the excess of Rs 40, as also the sum of Rs 118/- being remuneration to Clerks &c may be met from the saving out of the budget allotment of Rs 500/- under the head of "Prizes to students", the prizes awarded under this head this year amounting to Rs 228/-

The Remuneration to examiners and others who worked in Connection with the annual Vidvat and Vidyarthi Examinations of 1906, is not yet paid as the amount could not be drawn from the District Treasury Mysore for want of instructions from the Comptroller, for payment of the amount sanctioned by Government for the purpose. I accordingly request that you will ~~to~~ be so good as to address him on the subject.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant
For President.
